1. DO I ALWAYS NEED A VISA?

To answer this question, we must distinguish between European Union (EU) students and students from other countries.

1.1 EU students

- Up to a 3 month stay:

If you are an EU citizen, you have the right to study in another EU country. In this case, you will only need a valid document of identity or a passport.

- Over 3 months stay:

In this case, you will have to sign up in the Central Registry of Foreigners (Registro Central de Extranjeros), for which you will need:

1. To have been enrolled in a recognized education center;
2. To have a sufficient income (no matter the source) in order to live without needing financial help;
3. To be fully covered by a health insurance in Spain.

For more information about residence in Spain as an EU citizen, you can see our guide on this topic.

1.2 Non-EU students

- Up to a 3 month stay:

You will need a visa unless your country of origin has a visa exemption agreement for short-term stays.

- Up to a 6 month stay:

In this case, you will need a visa, which will be sufficient for a 6-month stay as a student.

- Over 6 months stay:

If you plan on staying in Spain for over 6 months, you will need, in addition to your visa, to ask for a Foreigner's Identity Card (TIE in Spanish), also called a Student Card. This card can be processed in a police station or a Foreigners' Office up to a month after your arrival. Keep in mind that you will have to make an online appointment.

2. WHAT ARE THE REQUIREMENTS FOR THE STUDENT PERMIT?

2.1 Documents you will have to provide to obtain a student visa

- If you are starting the procedure outside of Spain:

You will need a printed national visa request, filled out and signed by you.

- If you are starting the procedure within Spain:

You will need a printed official request form (EX00) filled out and signed, as well as proof that you are currently staying legally in Spain. The visa request will have to be submitted at least one month before your legal stay in Spain is due to expire.

In addition, you will need to submit (regardless of being in, or outside, of Spain):

- A valid passport or a recognized travel document, with a validity of at least four months from the moment of your visa request.
- Request form (EX00), duly completed and signed.
- Proof of admission to an educational institution (letter of admission, certificate of enrollment, etc.).
- Criminal record certificate from your country of origin or the country where you are legally residing (only for stays superior to six months and if the applicant is an adult).
- Proof that you have sufficient means of livelihood to sustain you during your approved stay and return to your country of origin. You will have to prove that you have sufficient financial funds at your disposal (through a scholarship acknowledgment letter, bank documents, etc.) and that you have accommodation in Spain (family home, student housing, etc.).
- An official medical certificate proving that you do not suffer from any of the diseases subject to quarantine according to the International Health Regulations (only for stays superior to 6 months).
- A private health insurance to cover medical and assistance expenses during your stay.

- If you are a minor who is not coming with their parents or legal guardians, you will need to show an authorization from your parents or legal guardians to move to, and reside in, Spain.

DON'T FORGET: That, if you request the permit via a Spanish Consulate, outside of Spain, they could request additional documentation from you.

2.2 What do I have to do once I have arrived in Spain?

As previously said, if your stay is over 6 months (180 days) long you will have to request a Foreigner's Identity Card in the Foreigners' Office or police station closest to your address. If your stay in Spain is less than 6 months, you will not need said card.

3. HOW CAN I RENEW MY STUDENT RESIDENCY IN SPAIN?

Student residency can be extended if you have successfully passed the courses, subjects or credits required by your educational institution to continue the studies.

Where: In the Foreigners' Offices, Government Sub-delegations of your place of residence, or in any public registry (you will find the web page that helps you find these places at the end of the guide).

When: During the 60 days prior to the expiry of your current student residency. If you submit the extension request in the aforementioned period of time, your initial student residency will be valid until said request is resolved.

The extension request can also be submitted in the 90 days following the expiry of your student residency. However, a sanctioning process could be opened due to your late submission, and you might be fined for it. Therefore, it is recommended to present your request during the accepted period of time.

Required documents:

- Request form (EX00), duly completed and signed.
- For underage applicants, an authorization from a parent or legal guardian.
- A valid passport or legal travel document with a minimum validity of four months.
- Documentation proving that you have passed the required tests and will continue with your initial studies, investigation, training, internship or volunteering.
- Documents proving that you have sufficient means of support to sustain you during your residency and for your return to your country of origin. You will have to prove that you have sufficient financial funds at your disposal (through a scholarship acknowledgment letter, bank documents, etc.) and that you have accommodation in Spain (family home, student housing, etc.).

- Private health insurance to cover medical and assistance expenses during your stay.

4. CAN I WORK AS A STUDENT?

5. CAN STUDENTS IN THE HEALTH SECTOR WORK?

Foreigners who hold a Spanish degree in medicine, pharmacy, nursing or other university degrees that enable them to participate in the annual calls for selective examinations for access to specialized health training positions known as the MIR (Médico Interno Residente), may, if they obtain a place, perform the work activities derived from the provisions of Royal Decree 1146/2006, of October 6, which regulate the special employment of the training of specialists in Health Sciences, without having to have the corresponding work authorization.

It is mandatory to inform the Foreigners' Office about such training before they start.

TAKE NOTE: In order to validate your foreign degree you have to contact the Spanish Ministry of Education: Homologación y convalidación de títulos y estudios extranjeros no

6. CAN I BRING MY FAMILY TO LIVE IN SPAIN AS A STUDENT?

Yes, but in this case, you will only be allowed to reunite the following family members:

- Spouse or registered partner;

When: It may be requested at the same time the student is applying for the student visa or at a later date, once the student is in Spain and while their student residency is valid.

In order to obtain said visa for relatives, the applicant must provide proof of sufficient economic means, family or kinship ties and, in the case of children over eighteen years of age, documentation proving that they are objectively unable to care for themselves.

TAKE NOTE: The relatives of students will reside in Spain under the same administrative situation as the foreign student, as their stay is conditioned by the student's stay in the country.

In no case will the relatives of the student having regrouped them be allowed to work.

If you have respected the deadline and said approval expires before your application for the residence and work permit is resolved, your student residency will be extended until you get a response about your application.

What happens to the family members reunited under the student permit?

The family members of the holder of the approval of stay living with said holder can obtain an authorization of residence through family reunion if they continue to meet the requirements (see our Family Reunion guide)

8. DOES MY TIME IN SPAIN AS A STUDENT COUNT TOWARDS OBTAINING LONG-TERM RESIDENCE?

This residence is obtained after 5 years, however there are 2 types of long-term residence:

1. "Ordinary" long-term residence

In this case, your time in Spain with a student permit does not count on the overall calculation to obtain long-term residence.

2. EU long-term residence

In this case, 50% of your time in Spain with a student permit counts towards obtaining long-term residence. For example, if you have been a student for four years, this would be counted as two years of residence, so three more years of residence would be sufficient to obtain EU long-term residence.

To find out more about long-term residence, see our guide on this topic.

9. DOES MY TIME IN SPAIN AS A STUDENT COUNT TOWARDS OBTAINING SPANISH CITIZENSHIP THROUGH RESIDENCE?

NO. The students' situation is not counted as residence but as a temporary stay.

Therefore, the time spent in Spain with an authorization of stay for studies will not be taken into account when applying for Spanish citizenship through residence.

VALID FOR ALL PROCEDURES: Documents from other countries must be translated into Spanish or the co-official language of the territory where the application is filed, and apostilled by the competent authority of the issuing country according to the Hague Convention of October 5, 1961, or legalized by the Spanish Consular Office with jurisdiction in the issuing country, unless the document is exempt from legalization by virtue of an International Convention.

10. FOREIGN EXCHANGE STUDENTS

There are two special cases to facilitate the mobility of students wishing to partially study or extend their studies in Spain.

Student exchange

This is the approval of a right to remain in Spain for a period of more than 90 days to participate in a student exchange program, in a secondary education and/or baccalaureate program in a recognized educational or scientific center.

This is known as "exchange", in which the students generally stay with families selected by the entity that organizes these programs.

Student exchange within the European Union

Any foreign student who has been admitted for the completion or extension of studies in another member state of the European Union may apply to study or complete part of his or her studies in Spain.

In this case there is no requirement to obtain a visa, although proof of financial support and evidence that the student has been admitted by an educational center in Spain will be required.

The application shall be submitted at any time prior to entry into Spanish territory (at the Spanish Consulate) or, once in Spain, within a maximum period of one month from the date of entry.
